PARENT INTERNET RELEASE

As the parent or guardian of this student, I have read the Technology Acceptable Use policy (See back page of Agreement). I understand that any violation of this policy is unethical and may constitute a criminal offense. I have personally discussed the agreement with my son/daughter and have made them aware of the conditions and consequences of its use/misuse. I understand that it is impossible for LHS administrators, faculty and staff to monitor or restrict access to all controversial materials when students are given access to the Internet. I hereby release LHS, its operators, and any institutions with which it is affiliated from any and all claims and damages of any nature which may arise from my son/daughter's use, or inability to use this access. This approval will remain in effect during the school year unless cancellation is submitted in writing by the parent/guardian or cancelled by the administrator.

TECHNOLOGY ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

The use of technology resources at Lutheran High is a privilege and must be treated as such by all individuals. Access entails responsibility. Technology resources include, but are not limited to: smart phones, iPads, tablets, computers, printers, video equipment, information storage devices, copy machines, software and the Internet. The resources are to be used for educational purposes in accordance with the Christian mission statement of Lutheran High. Technology use for gaming is unacceptable unless approved by instructor or administrator. Personal communication appropriate to school settings will generally be permissible.

It is important that users understand and abide by the following guidelines:

1. Users should not copy Lutheran High software or use technology at Lutheran High to make or distribute copies of copyrighted software. Copyrights laws pertaining to print media, electronic media and resources obtained from the Internet must be adhered to.
2. Use of a computer at Lutheran High School carries the implied consent for examination of all computer files/e-mail accounts by any teacher or administrator at any time. Permission of the user is not required.
3. Modifying or destroying other students' work on the network or other electronic media is against the law and strictly forbidden. Users must not attempt to gain access to passwords used by other users. Users are responsible for their account on the network and should not share their passwords with other users. Any attempt at unauthorized access to technology resources will result in disciplinary action.
4. Users must not intentionally obtain or display obscene or objectionable materials from the Internet or electronic resources.
5. Users should not install software from home or software that they have downloaded from the Internet on any Lutheran High computer.
6. Damaging or vandalizing any piece of hardware or software will not be tolerated. This includes marking on equipment, changing or erasing software, physically damaging equipment, or making it difficult or unpleasant for others to use.
7. Transmitting profanity, obscene, abusive, derogatory, or sexually explicit language or images will not be tolerated.
8. If an individual inadvertently accesses a resource that is inappropriate for an educational setting then the individual must immediately terminate the access and notify the supervisor.
9. In addition to the appropriate behaviors listed above, these ground rules for use of the Internet by students are also included:
 - a. do not give out personal information, phone numbers, social security numbers, credit card information, or addresses
 - b. do not enter news groups or chat rooms without approval of an administrator or teacher
 - c. do not fill out questionnaires without the permission of an administrator or teacher
 - d. do not order a product over the Internet.

Failure to follow any of these guidelines will be dealt with through the discipline system and may result in:

- a. withholding privileges
- b. in-school suspension
- c. out-of-school suspension
- d. expulsion
- a. students and their families are responsible for any financial expenses resulting from improper technology use. This includes payments to staff members for their time to correct problems due to abuse.

Every effort has been made to minimize the possibility of students encountering objectionable materials while using the Internet. Parents and students should realize that it is impossible to restrict access to all controversial materials.
