

“What do I want to be when I grow up?” Websites to help you decide.

If you can't decide what kind of cereal to eat in the morning, much less what you want to be when you grow up or where you want to go to college, the websites below are for you! Check out one or all to help you on your way to making some decisions. Have fun!

NOTE: Scroll down for college search websites.

www.studentedge.com

If you haven't registered yet, please do! Student Edge has tons of great help, from test prep to homework help to scholarship searches. It also has a Career Assessment and tools to help you explore careers, as well as colleges. Check it out!

<http://www.knowhow2go.org>

This is a great Wisconsin website to help middle school & high school students get on track with college plans. One nice feature is that it breaks the preparation tasks into grade levels, so students know exactly what they should be doing as sophomores, juniors, and so on. It also includes many links to other helpful resources.

<http://www.collegeboard.com/html/careerbrowser.html>

Click on a field, and it will give you all sorts of good info about the field and what kind of person will do best in it.

<http://www.livecareer.com/>

This one has a free career interest survey that will give you immediate feedback on which careers might be of interest to you. Very helpful!

<http://www.careervoyages.gov/students-links.cfm>

Has links to several free online inventories that will help in career searches.

<http://www.collegetoolkit.com/>

Searches for careers and colleges and scholarships and . . .

<http://mappingyourfuture.org/>

Mapping Your Future. This site has tons of info on planning for your future, finding a career you like, a school you like, and loans to help you make it happen.

<http://www.sdst.org/shs/library/careermacf.html>

This site takes you through a series of tasks to help determine what career might be best for you. Includes an online Myers-Briggs Personality test.

www.mymajors.com

This site has you take an assessment, and it puts together an Advisement Report, which used to cost money. It is now FREE if you insert our access code (Sheboygan).

- 1) Go to www.MyMajors.com
- 2) Click “Start Now” in the top right corner
- 3) After you receive your 5 Recommended Majors, Click “Generate Advisement Report”
- 4) Click “I have an Access Code”
- 5) Input your Access Code: Sheboygan

What college do I want to go to? College Search Websites

Plug in the info and let the following searches help you find your ideal college:

<http://www.anycollege.net/>

www.petersons.com

<http://www.collegeview.com/collegesearch/areaofstudy.jsp>

www.fastweb.com

<http://www.nextstepmagazine.com/nextstep/college-search.aspx>

<http://www.schoolsoup.com/>