

Guidance Scholarship List Archives

Parents & Students: This is a list of all the scholarship opportunities that came through the guidance office in the last few school years. While a few of them may not be offered this year, most of them will be. The vast majority are only for seniors, but there are a few that are open to other grade levels. Scholarship applications for the 2010-2011 school year will start pouring in starting in October. In the meantime, check these out to think ahead and start planning your own scholarship applications. Many of them have websites to check out, and you may be able to start working on essays. Blessings on the process!

<http://www.scholarshiphelp.org> : Check out this site that helps you with the process of locating additional cash for your college expenses. Very helpful!
