Dear SLHS Families, Students, and Community,

Happy Homecoming Week! The one week every year that schools celebrate with current students and alumni. Many wonderful activities take place throughout the week. From different themed dress up days to class competitions to school spirit, the school and community are electric in their energy level. Then, to cap off the week, there is usually some sort of athletic event and possibly a dance. What a week!

How about you? Do you have homecoming fever? If you have been around Sheboygan Lutheran High School at all this week, you know we do.

But what about the week after homecoming? The letdown, the going back to normal school dress, no more class competitions; what is there to look forward to now? Do we really have to wait a whole year before we can celebrate again? The answer to this question all hinges on what exactly you want to celebrate? Do you simply want to celebrate the tradition? Do you want to celebrate with others and feel that electric energy again? Do you want to celebrate with the dress up days?

For me, while I enjoy seeing the school and community celebrate during homecoming week, I wish this was the same feeling, energy, and anticipation we all have going to church. Think about it, on our own, we are powerless sinners. We are not able to do anything on our own without God giving us the talents and abilities to do so. God gives us everything we need to support and sustain this life. God made everything and sustains it with His grace. Because of sin, we are black and stained from breaking God’s commandments. We confess this every time we are in church, “Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment” (LSB, Divine Service Settings One and Two, pg. 151 and 167) or “I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserve Your temporal and eternal punishment” (LSB, Divine Service Setting Three, pg. 184). Because of sin, we have nothing to celebrate or look forward to, except for hell.

However, God sent His son, Jesus, to die in our place. We are washed clean in flood waters of Holy Baptism. Our faith in God is renewed and strengthened in Holy Communion. Because of what Jesus did in our place, God welcomes us back after each time we sin. God throws us a homecoming celebration, just like the father did with his prodigal son. Even the angels celebrate when we repent and turn back to God. “There is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents” (Luke 15:10b).
As we celebrate homecoming at SLHS this week, also celebrate the homecoming awaiting us in heaven. Celebrate going to church each week knowing that God will forgive us our sins. We are made right in His eyes. “But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord” (Joshua 25:15b).

Have a great and blessed week!

In Christ,
Mr. Bult
